TRAVEL + LEISURE'S ANNUAL SELECTION OF

The Best New (and Reborn) Hotels in the World

Over the past year, we crisscrossed the globe in our search for standout properties that, through innovative design, incredible food, and intuitive service, truly transport their guests. We checked in to historic manors, sleek city hangouts, private island resorts, and more to bring you 56 hotels worthy of a place on your bucket list. Here, 20 of our favorites—find the full collection at tandl.me/itlist.

INDIE DARLING

Trunk (Hotel), Tokyo

Tokyo got a jolt of energy last May when Trunk opened its doors on a small lane between the neon glare of Shibuya and the loud costumes of Harajuku. With its frequent retail pop-ups and a convenience store selling local treats, the 15-room property brings the action of the street indoors; a rooftop wedding chapel adds to the charm. Meanwhile, the rooms are like chic private residences with bespoke furniture, retro tiled bathrooms, and balconies with herb gardens. trunk-hotel.com; doubles from $433.

REBORN CLASSIC
Hotel Eden, Rome

If Fellini could see his former haunt now, no doubt he'd approve. Dorchester Collection spared no expense during a 17-month renovation of this icon, opened in 1889 near the Villa Borghese. The rooms are bigger (the count was reduced) and the revamped lobby still exudes old-world glamour, with polished marble and gold coffered ceilings. Chef Fabio Ciervo is back at La Terrazza, and proves he's still got it with Il Giardino, a casual, health-conscious new spot. dorchestercollection.com; doubles from $833. —L.I.

Seaside Crowd-Pleaser

The Loren, Bermuda

Bermuda's first newly built hotel in nearly a decade is a game changer, beginning with its aesthetic: instead of the traditional British-colonial style still so prevalent on the island, it favors clean lines and a contemporary look. The intimate lobby, with its floor-to-ceiling windows, vases of fresh lilies, and well-stocked library, feels less like, well, a lobby, and more like the living room of a stylish friend. The dramatic views of the Atlantic and secluded Pink Beach continue into the 45 guest rooms, which are spacious (more than 600 square feet) and feature a sophisticated palette of earth tones mixed with hits of silver and blue. Outside, it's all about the infinity pool, carved into a cliff and so close to the ocean that swimmers get splashed by spray. Don't be surprised to see Bermudans dining on butter-poached lobster at Marée, the formal restaurant; it's now the place for special-occasion dinners. The locals know a good thing when they see it. thelorenhotel.com; doubles from $900. —J.G.
